

CITY COUNCIL DECIDES NOT TO RUSH THROUGH WATER WORKS ORDINANCE

Investigation is Wanted as to How the Money Already Gone Has Been Ex- pended---No Haste is Necessary

Proposition from Mr. Veach, Representing the Old Water Company, to Furnish the City All the Fire Hydrants Needed at the Regular Price Until the City's New Plant Is Completed.

The City Council met in regular session Monday night and the meeting was very interesting throughout. The session was held in the mayor's room on account of repairs which are being made to the regular council chamber.

Previous to the meeting an executive session of the members was held for a short period in Mayor Atherton's private office and as a consequence the meeting was not called to order until a few minutes of eight o'clock. There was a large body of interested spectators present on account of it being known that several important matters would be up for consideration. Every chair in the room was occupied and people stood in the aisles and in the hallway.

Mr. George Beck, the well known printer, was named by Mayor Atherton as his appointment for the new Safety Board member to succeed Mr. Julius Juch, whose term has expired, and he was unanimously confirmed by the council.

The finance committee recommended the passage of an ordinance calling for the issuing of $85,000 worth of bonds for the completion of the municipal water works plant. Several ordinances were given their first reading, among them being one calling for the establishment of a public library and reading room. Then the $85,000 bond ordinance was given its second reading and an attempt was made by its author, Councilman Fulton, to have it rail-roaded through, but the other members, or part of them at least could not see it that way and called a halt until a further investigation could be made. The motion on final passage was defeated by a vote of 3 to 5, one member not voting. Several of the members made speeches on the subject and just before council adjourned Mr. W. A. Veach, superintendent of the water works company, tendered the good offices of the water works company to the city during such a time as might be required for the completion of the new municipal plant, after which council adjourned.

When Clerk Wm. Wulfoosh called the roll Councilmen Baker, Fulton, Flohr, Irwin, Kuster, Orr and Starr answered to their names, the full body being present. Mayor Atherton, Auditor Maurath, Service Board Members Pitzer, Livingston and Taylor and City Solicitor Bolton, also being present.

After the minutes of the last meeting had been read by Clerk Wulfoosh and approved by the council, the appointment of George Beck as a member of the Board of Safety by Mayor Atherton was read, and upon motion it was unanimously confirmed by the council.

The finance committee, composed of Messrs. Fulton, Kuster and Orr, next reported, recommending the passage of the $85,000 bond ordinance. The report was received and filed.

An ordinance was introduced by Councilman Irwin, and passed under a suspension of the rules, levying a special assessment on property owners for the building of a 15 inch sanitary sewer on Morris street from East Main to Lawrence street.

An ordinance introduced by Councilman Kuster and passed under a suspension of the rules levies a special assessment on property owners for the paving of High street from North Fourth street to the first alley east of Pearl street.

An ordinance was next introduced by Councilman Fulton directing the Board of Public Service to enter into a contract with the lowest responsible bidder to cover the Third street canal crossing. The bridge will be 16 feet in width, will be of concrete and will have runways on each side. Plans will soon be prepared, and it will probably have an extension from curb to curb. The rules were suspended and the ordinance was passed upon its final reading and was passed under a suspension of the rules.

Councilman Fulton next introduced an ordinance calling for the establishment of a public library and reading room in the east room of the first floor of the city building. The ordinance called for the governing of such an institution by six trustees who would be required to serve without compensation and who would be appointed by the council, the mayor to be a member ex-officio. It was referred to the finance committee.

An ordinance by Mr. Fulton was given its second reading calling for a bond issue of $85,000 for the purpose of building a water works plant. The ordinance provides that the bonds shall be issued in denominations of $1,000, and shall bear 4 1-2 per cent interest. After it had been read Mr. Fulton moved that it be given its third and final reading and placed upon its passage. The motion was seconded and when President Russell asked if there were any remarks, Councilman Kuster arose and stated that he was opposed to rail-roading the ordinance through the council without a thorough investigation. He stated that he had been elected by the people to look after their interests and he proposed to keep his constituents always in mind. Continuing he said further that the expenditure of such a vast sum of money should require more deliberation than that which had been given the matter. He had made some investigations on his own accord and had been informed by the superintendent of the old company, Mr. Veach, that their company would furnish all the hydrants necessary for the protection at the old figure just as long as council cared to have them and this being the case it was not necessary to rush the ordinance through with a whirl, as the city would have ample fire protection until the matter could be thoroughly sifted and probed to the bottom. He asked that Mr. Veach's proposition be heard by the council, and that he was sure that arrangements could be effected until such time as council would arrive at a definite conclusion in the matter. Mr. Kuster had quite a cold and did not talk as long as he had intended. (Continued on Page 8, 3rd Col.)

COUNTY OPTION NOT TO BE RUSHED THROUGH IN HASTE

MEASURE TO BE CONSIDERED MORE CAREFULLY THAN FIRST INTENDED.

In Fact It is Not Local Option at All, and Will Greatly Increase Taxation.

Columbus, O., Jan. 21.—The outlook now is that there will be more deliberation on the county option bill than was thought for a few days ago, and therefore it will not be rushed through to its passage in a fanatical manner. The Rose bill in the Senate is now before the temperance committee of that body and hearings are to be had that promise to give both sides of the question a chance to present their arguments. These arguments will be read by the people of the whole state for pretty full statements will be given out to the press. The arguments already made show that there are two sides to the question of county option.

A serious objection which has been made, and will be made against county local option, is that it is not local option at all, that it is directly opposed to the principle of home rule. The Jones and Beal laws and township local option laws are pointed at as models of local option, based upon the principle of home rule since these laws place all persons living inside of them on an equal footing. In other words, if all the residents of a municipality are not of one mind with regard to local option the Jones law affords them the means of making only a part of the municipality dry without regard to the residents of another part of the same municipality, who might not object to the saloon. By the same token, if a majority of the residents of any village desire that the entire territory within the corporate lines of the municipality shall be dry, the Beal law affords them a means of making it so. Similarly the township local option law operates with regard to any territory in any township lying outside the corporate limits of a municipality. The Rose bill, however, seeks to make an entire county dry without reference or deference to topography.

A strong point made against county option is that when the laws provide that any township can vote dry, the voters of such a township have no right to dictate to another township or all the other townships of a county. As a matter of fact there is not a spot, either in or out of any municipal corporation in Ohio today, which cannot be voted dry if the residents thereof so desire. Under the Jones law, any residence part of any municipal corporation can be made dry by petition signed by a majority of the qualified electors in the territory sought to be made dry. Under the Beal law entire municipalities may be voted dry at an election which must be held upon presentation to the council of the municipality of a petition signed by 40 per cent of the qualified electors thereof. Under the township local option law any territory which is not covered by the provisions of the Jones or Beal law may be voted dry at an election which is mandatory upon petition signed by a fourth of the qualified electors of any township outside of a municipality. This being true the question is asked, Why pass the Rose bill, which cannot add temperance in any way, and is calculated only to increase taxation by wiping out the Aiken law and the

MEDICINE SHOULD COMPLEMENT FAITH DECLARES BISHOP SAMUEL FALLOWS

Chicago, Ill., Jan. 21.—Faith and medicine, neither alone, but used together and in harmony — this is the essence of the new religious movement. "Christian Psychology," of which Bishop Samuel Fallows, of Chicago, is chief exponent in the West, and of which the Rev. Drs. Worcester and McComb, of Boston, are leading exponents in the East. It is history that any religious cult, however outlandish and absurd, can have followers, from Dovesheim to the Flying Rollers and the Holy Jumpers. But this latest idea in religious development has nothing in common with the eccentric movements above referred to, and apparently is destined to do much good and have many supporters among people of intelligence.

"In my opinion, the church, to save itself, must begin to minister to the bodies as well as to the souls of the American people." This is what Bishop Fallows said in announcing that his church, St. Paul's Reformed Episcopal, would inaugurate the work of Christian psychology, with the assistance of the leading neurologists and other physicians of Chicago. This was the plan made public the last Sunday of the old year. Since that time results have proved to the bishop that he is on what he deems the right track, a road which will yield best results in doing most practical good to humanity.

CHIEF OF STAFF FAVORS CANTEEN IN HIS REPORT

GEN. J. FRANKLIN BELL SAYS ITS ABOLITION HAS BEEN DETRIMENTAL TO ARMY.

Washington, Jan. 21.—General J. Franklin Bell sets at rest in his annual report as chief of staff, made today, all doubts as to the opinions that army authorities entertain concerning the anti-canteen law.

"Regular and special reports," he says, "establish the fact that the army, from the lowest rank up, is practically unanimous in its desire to have the canteen re-established. Even many officers, who, on principle, are opposed to the use of intoxicating liquors, realize that such use cannot be prevented, and that the sale of beer at post exchanges, would be the lesser evil. When the canteen was in operation there were fewer desertions, fewer fines and forfeitures imposed by sentence of courts-martial, less alcoholism and less disease than since its abolition."

DOUBLE GUARD PREVENTS MOB LYNCHING GIL

Manila, Jan. 21.—Only the doubling of the guards over the jail at Iloilo and the constant scattering of the threatening crowds which continued to gather in the streets until late last night, prevented a real American lynching with Joaquin Gil, the young politician who fatally shot Governor Benito Lopez of the province of Pinar, as the victim.

Gil who held Lopez responsible for the former's defeat as a member of the municipal council, rushed into the executive office immediately after the recent election and shot the governor four times. He was himself slightly wounded by Lopez' brother, but the police arrived on the scene and dragged him to prison before he could be killed.

Lopez died yesterday and threats of lynching began to be heard at once. The authorities think the danger is now over, but are sparing no precautions to save Gil.

LOCAL TAFT PEOPLE CALL A MASS MEETING AT MUSIC HALL JAN. 22

Licking County Will Send Two Dele- gations To State Convention As Fight Is On

Foraker Forces Fighting To Control Congressional Conventions In Order To Choose National Dele- gates---Contest Growing Interesting

The Halsey-Hamilton combination which controlled the meeting of the Licking County Republican Central committee at the Hotel Warden Monday afternoon apparently surrendered to the Taft forces and named a majority of Taft men for state delegates, but they did so to retain control of the organization in order to regulate the action of the Congressional convention where the Republican National delegates will be chosen.

Ex-Postmaster C. B. McCoy, an ardent Foraker man did the same thing in Coshocton county and similar action has been taken by ex-Congressman M. L. Smyser in Wayne county. It shows a concerted movement of the Foraker people to control the Seventeenth district convention and to send a Foraker delegation to the Chicago convention.

At least four of the state delegates chosen on Monday are pronounced Foraker men but the others are supporters of the secretary of war.

Now comes the highly interesting announcement that the Taft people in Newark and Licking county will not be quiet but will make a supreme effort to oust the delegation chosen on Monday afternoon. A call was issued Tuesday by direction of the Taft bureau in Columbus for a mass meeting of Taft Republicans to be held Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock in Music Hall for the purpose of selecting a ticket and calling a primary election for the election of state delegates. This action means that Licking county will send a contesting delegation to the coming state convention and the Taft people say also that it means that the contesting delegation will be seated. Licking county will therefore present the spectacle of sending two delegations to the state convention. The fight is on in earnest. It is the real thing and no quarters will be asked or given.

Announcement of Wednesday's mass meeting will appear in tonight's American-Tribune which is supporting Taft for the Presidency and bills are being distributed announcing the gathering. The telephones have been called into service and Taft supporters in every section of the county are being urged to be present. The Taft forces are particularly anxious to make good for behind them is the candidacy of Col. M. M. Gillett, who seeks the state treasurership.

NO INDORSEMENT FOR SECY. TAFT

THOSE OPPOSED TO HIS CANDIDACY WERE IN CONTROL OF MEETING.

Which Selected Delegates to State Convention—Col. Gillett Was Indorsed by Resolution.

The meeting of the Republican county central committee held at the Hotel Warden Monday afternoon, at which eleven delegates were named to the Republican state convention, is known to have been a "hot" one, and the end is not yet.

The delegates were all said to be Taft men, but this is denied by a number of Taft leaders in the county who state that a number of them are Foraker sympathizers. It is said there is rebellion in the ranks that will likely result in the calling of a meeting, probably a mass convention and that the delegates chosen Monday will not be recognized but that a new set will be named and as a consequence Licking county will have two sets of delegates and it will be up to the committee on credentials in the state convention to settle the contest.

The meeting Monday was an executive session lasting four hours and is known to have been a stormy one. The candidacy of Col. M. M. Gillett for state treasurer was discussed by resolution which carried unanimously. It is understood that the fight was upon the question of abiding by the call of the state convention for primaries. A motion to comply with such call and hold primaries was defeated by the decisive vote of 27 to 13. It has been conceded that the strong appeal made by George B. Hamilton had its effect in producing this result.

The committee next selected the following delegates to the state convention, which will be held in Columbus on Tuesday and Wednesday, March 3 and 4: C. D. Watkins, Et-na; T. B. Iden, Thornville; Col. H. D. Burch, Hebron, Stanton Hoover, Croton; Chas. N. Johnston, Clay Lick; Edward Simpson, Johnstown; A. M. Smith, Utica; Dr. C. B. Hatch, Dr. J. P. Lattimer, Owen Nash and Carl Norpell, of this city.

The anti-Taft people were in absolute control of the meeting, and Secretary Taft was not endorsed. Those manipulating the wires stated that they had selected Taft delegates (?) in the interest of harmony to promote the candidacy of Col. Gillett in a convention which will be a strong Taft convention, and to avoid an open conflict. This would ordinarily be considered as political wisdom.

While Foraker has submitted to the selection of the Taft delegates to the state convention yet he has announced his intention of carrying the

ONE KILLED TWO INJURED IN QUARRELS

Lorain, Jan. 21.—As a result of crimes here last night, one man is dead, one fatally, and one seriously injured. All are foreigners. Thomas Washnack was beaten to death with a club by two men after a quarrel. The other two men had their skulls fractured in fights. Seven foreigners are under arrest.

NEW MANAGER OF HOTEL WARDEN THEO. WEIFFENBACH

For thirty years Mr. Theodore Weiffenbach, the new manager of the Warden hotel has had experience in managing hotels and clubs, and in him Captain Warden, owner of the hotel, has secured a man fully capable of looking after his interests in this city. Mr. Weiffenbach has managed some of the largest hotels and private clubs in Michigan and Illinois, and has recently been identified with the Commercial club of Marion.

For four years he was manager of a large private golf club near Chicago, and in fact his experience has been in every branch of the business. The Warden has long been known as a hotel for the traveling men, and every thing possible will be done for their comfort. Banquets will also be catered to, and again in this line the new manager's experience will stand him in good stead.

DIPLOMATIC CLASH BETWEEN UNITED STATES AND HAYTI IS AT HAND.

Port au Prince, Haiti, Jan. 21.—President Alexis' forces are pressing the revolutionist army hard in the town of Gonaves and news of the rebels' surrender is hourly expected. They are completely surrounded and have not the slightest hope of escape. One rumor is that General Firmin, whose interest the uprising was started, landed in Haiti before the rebels were beaten at St. Marie and driven to refuge at Gonaves and that he must be captured with his followers. It is certain that he left his refuge at St. Thomas. The general opinion is that he will not escape with his life if he falls into President Alexis' hands.

Alexis is understood to have evidence showing positively that the uprising was backed by a New York company with interests in Haiti, that several American filibusters are likely to be captured among the rebels, and that a formal complaint will be made to Washington of the engineering by Americans of a rebellion against a friendly government.

GRANVILLE

Granville, Jan. 21.—The annual day of prayer for colleges observed in most of the educational institutions of the land, occurs this year at Denison university on Thursday of this week, Jan. 23. The day is a holiday at the college. Services are to be held at 10 o'clock a. m. in the University chapel with a sermon by Rev. George B. Cutton, Ph.D., of Columbus. Cutton came to the pastorate of the First Baptist church of Columbus in October, from Corning, N. Y. He is a young man of fine ability and the author of one or two important books. He is also distinguished for his athletic record made while on the football team at Yale. He is a well built, sturdy young man, somewhat of the type of President Hunt himself and is winning golden opinion from his people in Columbus, among whom are Editor O. C. Hooper of the Columbus Dispatch, J. Warren Smith, director of the Weather Bureau, Columbus. There will be an afternoon service of a more informal nature, and an evening preaching service, both of these at the Baptist church, and at the latter it is expected that Dr. Cutton will preach again.

The new Heisey well on the Burr Everett farm, which came in Friday night with a volume of nearly 6,000 feet, is attracting much attention about Granville. It is only a few hundred feet from the great Logan well, which is nearly equal to it in volume. Both are just across the railroad track and just beyond the "rolling" Alexandria and Worthington roads, scarcely half a mile west of the limits of the village. The great well is running free, owing to defective packing. One visiting the derrick hears a huge hissing sound, although he sees nothing, and unless in a particular direction from the mouth of the well he detects no odor, but on placing the hand above the opening at a height of two or three feet one feels the impact of the rushing gas, as though struck a blow. Sunday night when the pack burst, the noise of the escaping gas could be heard for a distance of a mile. A "sugar head" in the well was thrown up through the top of the 80-foot derrick and landed deep in the soil some distance away. All haste is being made to enclose the well properly, but millions of feet of gas are escaping meanwhile. A new location to the south, across the creek, has its derrick erected and the work of drilling will soon commence.

Tuesday morning Dr. E. W. Hunt, Dr. R. S. Colwell, Rev. C. J. Rose, Rev. A. S. Carman and Rev. E. A. Reed went to Columbus to attend the quarterly meeting of the Board of the Ohio Baptist convention, of which these gentlemen are trustees. Rev. C. J. Rose is secretary and Dr. Colwell is treasurer of the Ohio Baptist convention, of which Charles T. Lewis, Esq., of Toledo, one of the present Denison trustees, is president. Messrs. E. M. and J. B. Thresher of Dayton, J. R. Davies of Newark, G. M. Peters and W. H. Doane of Cincinnati, F. T. Beaver of Dayton, Dr. G. E. Leonard, formerly of Granville, now of Norwalk, and Dr. H. F. Stillwell of Cleveland are also prominent members of the board. It meets for its quarterly board meeting at the Neil House, Columbus and the State convention is held in October of each year. It conducts missions in Ohio, aiding the support of feeble churches, and the construction of church edifices. It has recently undertaken very important work with the foreign population of Cleveland, Youngstown, and the region along the upper Ohio river from East Liverpool to Martin's Ferry.

Mr. Wm. Codier, of 403 Graves Street, Syracuse, N. Y., is very strong in his expression of belief in the new medicine, and has the following to say on the subject: "I have suffered from catarrh of the nose and throat for four years. It must have been communicated to my stomach, for all this time my stomach has given me a great deal of trouble, and caused me much pain and suffering. My stomach was often sour, and my food did not digest. I was bothered by a continual desire to spit, and there was a constant dropping of mucus into the throat. "The first relief I have been able to obtain is from Cooper's New Discovery, which I have been taking for about a week. My catarrhal condition has been greatly improved and my stomach is almost well. Mr. Cooper's medicine has benefited me more than anything I have ever used."

These statements are from reliable citizens in various communities who have tried these celebrated medicines. We sell them and will gladly explain their nature to any one interested. —City Drug Store.

EARLIER NEWARK

(By Col. Charles H. Kibler)

In 1860, or before the Northern railroad (first called the Columbus and Lake Erie) came towards the public square through an alley at the north end of Second street, thence by that street to its station in the rear of the present Hibbert & Schans building. It was afterwards extended across Main street through the lot now occupied by W. A. Prout and over the canal to connect with the Central Ohio railroad, near the site of the present Baltimore and Ohio station house, or depot.

The Panhandle railroad's first station was on the east side of First street, opposite the Consumers building. The intention at first was to construct the track through the alley just north of the First Presbyterian church. Fortunately, that project was abandoned. The first real station of the Central Ohio railroad was on the west side of Third street in an old brick dwelling house, built and used for a long time, and occupied by Lucius Smith, a prominent citizen. It was there, in March, 1861, that I had the privilege of seeing Abraham Lincoln, as he was on his way to Washington for his inauguration. He had shortly before commenced to grow whiskers. There was no mustache. I can never forget that rugged, sad face. It seemed to express what he no doubt felt his sense of the awful difficulties and responsibilities which he was to encounter as President. At the same station, I afterwards saw President Andrew Johnston, accompanied by the picturesque and gallant General Custer. I recall that the impetuous General misconstrued some little demonstration or cheers as a insult to the President. He was assured that this was not so, nor so intended.

In 1860, the principal buildings were around the public square. The business houses were in this square. The principal taverns were the American, now called the Doty House, and a building on the side of the building called the Lansing block. This building was burned. There was a three-story building called the Pataskala block on the site of the "sky scraper." Another three story building, the same occupied by Roe Emerson, the Christians, George Hermann; the three-story building, called the Hogg building, where the Franklin National Bank and E. M. Kirby & Co are located; the three-story building on the corner of Second street; the building, I think, of two stories, for many years used as a dry goods store by F. H. and C. Woodbridge; a stone building used as a place of business by J. & H. Smith, where the postoffice is now located; the three-story stone building on the north side of the square, and the present building in the rooms occupied by the City Drug store. The only unchanged buildings I recall are the Kusler building and that on the corner of the square and Second street, overtopped with the information that "Consumers-is-the-beer." The square generally presented what may be called a scrappy appearance.

The principal suburban residences were those of George W. Penney and Willis Robbins, which were then quite out of town. In 1860, as I remember, there were but four houses east of the North Fork creek—one the old Judge Wilson house, one on the south side of the same street, a house of Bartley Emery, and the farm house of Abram Miller still standing at the top of the rise. In this village an orderly population lived, enjoying as much happiness as usually falls to the lot of any communities.

Telephone Stockholders. The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Newark Telephone company will be held tonight for the election of a board of directors.

Advocate's Circulation. More copies of the Advocate are sent to the Newark postoffice than all the other newspapers in or out of the county combined. And the list is still on the increase.

Royal Neighbors. The Royal Neighbors of America will hold their regular meeting on Wednesday evening, and on account of initiation and visitors there will be no children allowed in the hall.

An Appreciative Subscriber. Mr. Milton Hart of Mt. Pleasant, O., in renewing his subscription to the Advocate says: "I don't see how you get up such a paper for so small an amount of money. I expect to read the Advocate as long as I can see to read."

Attended Revival. About 35 people, mostly members of the Clay Lick and Mt. Carmel churches, came up to the city last night in a special car to attend the old-fashioned revival meeting at the Pine street church where Rev. Mr. Dillin is preaching. Messrs. William Mason and Mac Mossman had them in charge.

At Fifth Street Baptist. The opening meeting of the series to be held at the Fifth street Baptist church was fairly well attended. The pastor outlined some of the work he hoped might be accomplished in the city to come. The pastor and church fully realize that success can only be attained by the efforts put forth insofar as the power and presence of the Holy Spirit is present with them. A cordial invitation and welcome are extended to all who will come and worship with us.

Services Well Attended. "A Likeness of the Kingdom" was the theme of the discourse at the Central Church of Christ last night, where a large Monday night audience participated in a rich gospel service. The plan of salvation is being clearly presented every night. This evening Mr. Scholes will speak on the theme "A Likeness of the Kingdom," a vivid interpretation of the parable of the vineyard. Song service directed by Prof. Miller at 7:30. Sermon at 8 o'clock. You are more than welcome. You are earnestly invited to attend.

Clarence Luther Improving. Clarence Luther, who was badly burned several days ago by stumbling and splashing a ladle of molten steel upon himself, while at

RELENTLESS

IS THE FIRE OF QUESTIONS HURLED BY JEROME AT FRAIL WITNESS, BUT SHE IS UNSHAKEN

Only Point of Contradiction She Offers To Explain, But is Not Allowed To Do So.

New York, Jan. 21.—Mrs. Evelyn Thaw, finally concluded her testimony and was excused from the stand at 2:30. She at once took her old seat in the court room.

New York, Jan. 21.—Mrs. Evelyn Thaw shows no signs of weakening in her story to save her husband. She has been under the cross fire of sharp questioning at the hands of District Attorney Jerome for six hours, but has steadfastly stuck to the main facts of her recital. In but one point has the sarcastic assaults of Jerome scored. That was when he got her to admit receiving valuable jewelry from White in 1901. A pearl ornament valued at $1,000 and many costly rings were among the presents. She kept them until 1905 when she says she gave them to Will Sturgis, a friend of Thaw's. At the last trial she swore she never received presents from White, excepting certain "useful" articles. When confronted with this statement today she declared it was what she then testified to, and said there was a misunderstanding she could explain. But Jerome gave her no chance. She asked Justice Dowling to permit her to explain to the jury, but he tartly told her to confine her remarks to counsel. In the main she keeps close to her original recital. Jerome, indeed, seemed much more fatigued than she, when luncheon recess was taken to-day. Jerome's cross examination, while relentless, has been of a particularly exasperating, flighty kind, he swinging from one point of her story to another without apparent care for any continuity. But if this has been intended to rattle the witness, it has failed of its purpose. Unless something unforeseen happens, Mrs. Thaw will complete her cross examination, and redirect before court adjourns tonight.

WEDDINGS

COOPERIDER-WALSER. Thornville, Jan. 21.—A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mrs. Ora Walsler, southeast of Glenford, O., on Thursday, January 16, when Miss Lillian Walsler and Mr. Thomas O. Cooperider were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Rev. Mr. Gill, of Somerset. About 62 guests were present.

After congratulations an elaborate wedding dinner was served. Mr. and Mrs. Cooperider will make their home with the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Walsler.

CLOTHING STOCK IS PURCHASED BY M. SCHONBERG

The trustee's sale of N. Wolf's clothing stock, which occurred Tuesday afternoon in the room formerly occupied by the Newark Trust company, in the Doty House block, attracted quite a good sized crowd, although there were but three bidders. The stock consisted of clothing, gents' furnishings, shoes, etc., and included a number of fixtures, in which were included two large floor show cases.

W. D. Fulton, trustee in bankruptcy for N. Wolf, offered the stock for sale in bulk, W. C. Seward being the auctioneer. The entire stock, and fixtures were appraised at $2,372.40. When Col. Seward asked for bids some one started it off at $200. It jumped from this figure $25 at a time until it reached $950. The next bid was for $960 and the last bid received was from Michael Schonberg, who bought a clothing store for $970. Mr. Schonberg is the well known South Fourth street meat dealer and he has not as yet decided what disposition he will make of the stock.

MRS. HANDEL WAS FINED $25

Arrest Made by Sanitary Policeman of Edward Green for Throwing Refuse in Alley.

The city authorities are taking steps to enforce laws that have never been bothered with since the night they passed council, and as a result another person has fallen hard against the law. Sanitary Policeman Jones appeared before the mayor this morning and swore out a warrant for the arrest of Edward Green, living at 11 East Main street.

It seems that Green has been in the habit of throwing refuse into the alley in the rear of the building where he lives, and the odor has been anything but pleasant to the people living nearby. Green will be tried in the mayor's court this afternoon.

Mrs. Anna Handel who was arrested by Mr. Jones for selling milk without a license, was tried in Mayor Atherton's court today. After hearing the case she was fined $25 and costs by the mayor. She then took out a license for the sale of milk and meat.

Justus Granich, aged 15, was recently arrested in Philadelphia for wife desertion.

NAVAL STRENGTH OF FATHERLAND BEING INCREASED.

Berlin, Jan. 21.—That Germany will soon become and will then continue to be the world's second naval power is the assertion of Col. Gadeke, perhaps the foremost of the Kaiser's experts in the building up of the Fatherland's sea strength.

The colonel concedes that England still overshadows the rest of the world afloat but declares that no other nation will even approach Germany.

The fleet will consist in 1920 of says, of 32 battleships of the Dreadnaught type. 15 others of almost equal strength and 20 large and powerfully armed cruisers.

OBITUARY

FUNERAL OF JOHN MEAD.

The funeral services over the remains of the late John Mead were held at the St. Mary's church, Shawnee, O., on Monday morning, at 10 o'clock. Mr. Mead, who formerly resided in Newark, had been living in Shawnee for the past 15 years with his father, Mr. Lawrence Mead. He was a coal miner and worked in the Upson mine at that place. He had been ailing for some months with Bright's disease, and about two months ago was compelled to give up work. Since that time he has rapidly failed and on Saturday morning he passed away. The deceased was a brother of Mrs. Daniel Manning, of this city, and he had many friends in Newark who will regret to learn of his death. He is the youngest of a family of 12 children and the first one of the children to die.

CARD OF THANKS. Mrs. E. T. Glynn and family desire to express their thanks to neighbors and friends, also Rev. Mr. Lowe and the choir for help, sympathy and floral offerings in time of their sad bereavement. Mrs. E. T. Glynn and family.

VIRGINIA SOCIETY SERVED THE WINE IN GEORGIA STATE

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 21.—The action of the Virginia Society in defying the law and serving wine at their banquet last night, is to be investigated by the local authorities. It is unlikely any attention will be paid to the matter, had it not been for the absence of Gov. Hoke Smith.

When the governor learned it was planned to serve wine he notified the committee that under the prohibition law he was satisfied intoxicants could not be served at a public banquet and as chief executive charged with enforcing the law, he could not be present unless it was cut out.

The society was sorry but the wine was served and the governor stayed away.

Not a Democratic Panic.

(Upper Sandusky Chief.)

Saturday was "Emergency Day" at Columbus, when the ladies of that city raised the sum of $9,332 in cash and $4,000 in provisions, by means of the tag system. This will be used in assisting the thousands of unemployed people at Columbus through the winter. In Toledo a like plan will soon be inaugurated, while in various cities over the country free soup houses are being established. And all of this is being brought about with a Republican President in the White House. The Democrats cannot be charged with such state of affairs this time.

The Appropriation Committee are trying to cut down the Department estimates as a deficit is feared. The Republican panic has struck Congress at last.

Nebraska Spends Strenuous Day in Chicago, and Speaks at the University of Chicago.

Chicago, Jan. 21.—William Jennings Bryan spent a strenuous day in Chicago Monday, speaking in the afternoon in the heart of the enemy's fortress, at the University of Chicago, and in the evening he delivered a religious talk before the Chicago Congregational society, while between times he received delegations representing every phase and branch of Democratic politics in Chicago.

Politically Mr. Bryan declared that "sufficient to the day is the evil thereof." He refused to say whether or not he would take any active part in Illinois politics during the coming campaign. He declined to state whether or not he would withdraw from the presidential race, at the demand of certain eastern political powers.

He had heard nothing, beyond what was printed in the newspapers and what newspapers had telegraphed to him, of the New York conference to be held in New York next Thursday.

NEGRO WEDS AT THE AGE OF 136

New York, Jan. 21.—Just to prove that Cupid is no respecter of age, William Brooks Mason, a negro, who gave his age as 136 years, Monday applied for a license at the marriage license bureau. He gave his address as 118 East One Hundred and Thirty-fourth street and his birthplace at Havana, Cuba, and admitted that this was his second matrimonial venture in the last 100 years. His first wedding, he said, was a century ago, his wife dying ten years ago.

Ella Haynes, 28 years old, who gave her address as No. 68 East One Hundred and Thirty-third street, was the bride-elect, and it was her duty to lead the aged victim of Cupid's darts to the license window, as Mason's eyesight was very poor. In no other way did he show signs of being decrepit, and was particularly brisk and keen about being married right away.

With that object in view he stepped nimbly downstairs to the marrying room in the basement, where Alderman Smith read the services joining the two in matrimony.

MYSTERY

Surrounds the Identity of the Headless Body of a Woman Washed Ashore at Chicago.

Chicago, Jan. 21.—Detectives are today attempting to solve the mystery surrounding the discovery of the almost nude headless body of a woman washed up by Lake Michigan. The police believe the woman was murdered and that the body has been in the lake at least two months. The head is missing from the lower jaw up, and some of the teeth in the lower jaw are gone. There is not even a ring by which the body might be identified. There are many fractures of bones in the arms and legs. The hands of the woman are small and the muscles soft, so the police believe she was not of the working class.

"It is possible that the woman disrobed and threw herself in to the lake and her head was crushed off by the ice in the last few days," said Police Lieutenant Monahan. "But it is equally possible that she was killed and her head severed before she was thrown into the lake."

AMMONIA

Exploded in Tank at Greenburg, Pa., Fatally Injuring Four—Hotel Guests in Panic.

Greenburg, Pa., Jan. 21.—Four men were probably fatally injured, and property damaged to the extent of $20,000 here early today when an ammonia tank under a concrete pavement in front of the Hotel Rappe exploded. The hotel guests were thrown into a panic.

The explosion hurled Fenton Mathias against a brick building 50 feet away. Three other of the hotel employees are not expected to recover. The hotel guests escaped injury.

INJUNCTION

ASKED BY FRANKLIN COUNTY PROSECUTOR TO TEST VALIDITY OF PRIMARY CALL.

JUDGE BIGGER TO DECIDE

As to the Legality of the Republican Committee's Action—Petition Cites No Authority Exists.

Columbus, Jan. 21.—Without waiting for Senator Joseph Benson Foraker or any of his adherents in the Republican factional fight to file suit challenging the validity of the call issued by the State Central committee, the opposition Monday brought proceedings in this county finally to determine all of the legal objections that have been raised in the worthy war that has been waged since New Year's day.

Acting as an officer of Franklin county, for which he is the legal advisor, Prosecuting Attorney Karl Webber late in the afternoon filed a petition for a restraining order against the deputy board of state supervisors before Judge Thomas Bigger of the Common Pleas court.

The Taft organization has been preparing for this test ever since Senator Foraker's famous declaration that he would not heed the call because of its alleged character. The petition apparently was in readiness for the auspicious moment to arrive when the action should begin. This was determined by the action of the Republican County committee in requesting the deputy board of elections of this county to order a primary election held under the provisions of the Bronson act. Attached to this request was a demand for the filing of a petition approved by the representative of Secretary William H. Taft for the placing upon the ballot of a blanket ticket.

Before the deputy board could take action the members were served with a copy of the suit for the injunction. County Treasurer John T. Lindsay and County Auditor Frederick Sayre were likewise made parties to the suit, being enjoined from honoring the warrants of the supervisors for election expenses.

Judge Bigger granted an immediate hearing at the court house. The defendants filed a demurrer to the petition and at once proceeded to the trial of the cause. Prosecutor Webber, in his argument, raised the constitutional point that it was unlawful under the Bronson act to expend the public funds in holding a primary election for the benefit of one political party, the same being a voluntary organization and not a legal entity. Besides this the call itself was attacked at every possible point on the score that it was burdensome and unfair.

For the defense, it was argued that this point had been decided in the states of Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin and California, and uniformly in the affirmative for their side of the contention. Each supreme court had occurred in the view that the charge was lawful.

The Stark county case decided by the common pleas court, Judge Harter presiding, in 1906, was cited as an Ohio authority. It was shown that Judge Harter had held that the expenditure was lawful even for a district primary. In this instance the question was one pertaining solely to the county unit.

In Stark county the primary was called to nominate a Congressman, a district officer. The state call provides for the nomination of county delegates. After hearing the arguments, Judge Bigger received the briefs and took the case under advisement, promising an early decision in order that there might be time for appeal if it was desired by either side.

IMPORTANT

ARE CHANGES SUGGESTED IN MUNICIPAL CODE INCORPORATED IN SEVERAL BILLS.

SERVICE & SAFETY BOARD

To Be Appointed by the Mayor—School Boards to Consist of Five Members.

Columbus, Jan. 21.—The campaign for important changes in the municipal code of Ohio was inaugurated when Representative Paine of Lucas county introduced in the house Monday evening his bill which provides for the appointment of directors of public safety and public service instead of boards of public service and public safety, as provided by the existing code.

These directors are to be appointed by the mayor. Other changes in the code are proposed in Mr. Paine's bill. The civil service regulations are strengthened, but superintendent of police and fire departments are exempted from its provisions. Mr. Paine will lead the fight for the passage of this bill on the floor of the house.

As chairman of the house committee on cities, Mr. Paine has taken a deep interest in municipal affairs, and recently refused to contest with Mr. Eagleson for the speakership of the house to work for important changes in the municipal code.

Another resolution introduced yesterday was that by Mr. Hunt of Cincinnati, providing for civil service in all municipalities of the state. Mr. Corlett of Cuyahoga also presented a bill providing for the school boards, consisting of five members, to be elected at large instead of boards composed of members elected by wards, as at present.

The session of the house Monday evening was confined to the introduction of bills and resolutions. The senate got as far as bills for the third reading, and three were passed. One of these was a temperance measure, introduced by Mr. Rathbun of Meigs county. It prohibits the drinking of intoxicating liquors on trains, except in cars or compartments where such liquors are sold. A penalty of $5.00 fine is provided. It passed without a dissenting vote.

THE AUDITORIUM WILL BE LEASED

ERNEST T. JOHNSON AND W. D. HARRIS SUBMIT PROPOSITIONS TO TRUSTEES.

No Action Taken Monday Night, But Propositions Will Be Considered Friday, January 31.

The board of trustees of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Memorial Hall met Monday evening in an adjourned session for the purpose of choosing a manager for the Auditorium or of leasing same for the period of three years. No action was taken on the matter and it was postponed until Friday evening, January 31.

One of the trustees stated to an Advocate representative the following particulars: On January 2, Mr. Ernest T. Johnson made application to be appointed manager either on the usual per cent basis or upon the terms of a three year lease at $3,500 per year.

On January 13, at the annual meeting for the election of officers, W. D. Harris presented an application to be appointed manager on the same basis except that he offered $3,800 per year. At this meeting the board passed a resolution requiring the applicants within a week to present for the consideration of the board the contract of lease which each proposed to execute with the board, and an adjournment was then taken until Monday evening, January 20.

Mr. Johnson submitted at this meeting the lease which he proposed to enter into agreeing to pay the sum of $4,000 per year. No lease or other proposition was submitted.

The board after considerable discussion of the matter decided that in order to put all applicants upon a fair and just basis, that it would prepare a lease covering all the terms and conditions required for a period of three years' lease of the Auditorium, which should at a special meeting to be held on the evening of Friday, January 31, be submitted to the board for its approval and that when the lease was approved that bids would be invited upon the basis of this lease.

It might perhaps be added that at the meeting held January 13, it was decided by a divided vote to lease the Auditorium instead of electing a manager as has been the custom since the Auditorium was opened.

WILLIAMS, SENATOR FROM MISSISSIPPI

Jackson, Miss., Jan. 21.—The Mississippi legislature today elected John Sharp Williams, the Democratic floor leader in the House, United States senator, to succeed Senator Money.

AMUSEMENTS

BLANCHE WALSH TONIGHT.

Blanche Walsh, than whom the American stage knows no more brilliant actress, is announced in Wagenhals & Kemper's production of Jacob Gordin's tremendous drama, "The Kruezer Sonata," at the Auditorium tonight, with the original cast and production as first seen at the Manhattan theater, New York. Critics have agreed that the characterization Miss Walsh has given the principal role in this stirring play takes rank with the best creations the American stage has known in a decade. Ever forceful, Miss Walsh lends to her role a strength and a virility unequalled by any other player of modern roles and her success has been well earned. The cast was selected because of the particular qualifications each and every player had for the role for which they were cast. The production, in keeping with the high standard long since established by Wagenhals & Kemper, is complete to the most minute detail.

MA'S NEW HUSBAND.

Tuneful, racy music, a wealth of popular song hits, and bright and clever dialogue are all bespoken for "Ma's New Husband," the three act musical farce announced at the Auditorium for Thursday evening only. The comedy situations of the place are said to be exceedingly humorous, and the story well connected and happily climaxed. Herbert Short, the man poses as a school boy in order that he may be near the woman he loves, is a character audacious and eccentric, whose every movement excites a peal of laughter. The scenes between him and a wealthy bachelor, Culpepper, who never dreams that the lad under his roof is the affianced husband of the woman with whom he, himself, is madly in love, are spoken of as uproarious. Managers Scott and Raynor are lauded everywhere for the excellent company carried and for the finished, clean and enjoyable performance given. Seats now on sale.

THE CHOIR SINGER.

"The Choir Singer" a play with songs, is the unusually attractive offering at the Auditorium for an engagement of two performances, Saturday matinee and night. During its recent appearance in New York "The Choir Singer," at once established itself as a metropolitan success of the first order. An important element in the play and which in a measure accounts for its popularity with theatergoers of all classes, is the fact that attractive musical numbers are logically introduced at appropriate times, the songs being woven into the plot, which revolves around the efforts of the heroine, a young Virginia aristocrat, to conquer fate and fortune by means of her vocal talents. Elaborate scenery and a large company of carefully selected metropolitan players assure for "The Choir Singer" a thoroughly adequate performance.

AT THE ORPHIUM.

Decidedly clever is the little playlet, "A Lucky Liar," that is on the Orphium bill this week, as produced by Louis Chevalier and company. It is a laugh from start to finish, and clean all the way through, no vulgar language marring it. The three comprising the company, Louis Chevalier and his two lady assistants, are good, and the act goes big with the audience. Harry Lakola, the Sailor Juggler, has something new in the juggling line and gets his share of the applause. De Verner and Van have a little sketch that seems to take well. Zenfretta and Mansfield, in "The Crazy Messenger," have a laugh maker that catches strong from the start. Jia Haynes has a particularly good illustrated song this week, and the "Prisoner's Escape," the moving picture, closes a very attractive bill.

(Continued from Page 1.) fight into the congressional districts, and this will put an entirely different aspect on the presidential aspirations of Secretary Taft. It shows that the management of the campaign of the secretary could not have been placed in poorer hands for the first thing attempted was the elimination of the senior senator and this will be the undoing of the Roosevelt candidate, for Senator Taft is the hands of warm, loyal friends all over the state who are not quite ready to have him retired.

EMBARRASSING TO COL. GILLET IS THE RUMPUS

And His Support for State Treasurer May Receive a Set Back If Peace Is Not Made.

The Columbus correspondent of the Enquirer wires his paper agent the following in the ranks of the Licking county Republicans as follows:

"The failure of the Licking County Committee to obey the call is embarrassing to Melville Gillett, of Newark, who is a candidate for the nomination for state treasurer. He cannot very well come to the convention with an irregular delegation and expect to be received into full fellowship. It is understood that an effort is being made to have a mass convention called that will elect a new committee, which will be favorable to his candidacy to the extent that it will obey the state committee's instructions. To carry out this purpose will involve the recognition of the new committee by the state controlling body. Otherwise the general situation is a complete 'clean-up' for Taft."

ANOTHER ROUND HAS BEEN LOST BY ROOSEVELT

IN THE BATTLE WITH HIS ENEMIES IN THE UNITED STATES SENATE.

APPOINTMENT HELD UP

When He Named Man for Pension Agent, Personally Objectionable to New Hampshire Senators.

Washington, Jan. 21.—President Roosevelt Monday lost another round in his battle with the senate, when his nomination of Charles Fairbanks to be U. S. pension agent in Concord, N. H., was rejected in the executive session, at the request of Senators Gallinger and Burnham.

This is the fifth nomination by the president within a week that has been rejected by the senate and according to reports it is only the beginning of a long line of rejections contemplated by the anti-administration senators unless the President surrenders absolutely to them.

The nomination of Fairbanks has been held up by the two New Hampshire senators for some time in the hope that they could induce the President to withdraw his name.

President Roosevelt was firm, however. He appointed Mr. Fairbanks on the recommendation of Winston Churchill, the novelist, who charged in his last campaign that both senators were controlled absolutely by the Boston and Maine railroad, and that every appointment they made was in the interest of the company. P. S. Streeter, Republican national committeeman from New Hampshire, also recommended the nomination of Fairbanks.

Senators Gallinger and Burnham each submitted a name to the President for the place last fall and told him whichever he selected would be satisfactory to them. The President refused to appoint either of them.

The senate having rejected Mr. Fairbanks, the President cannot appoint him.

It is understood, however, that he will immediately send in the name of another man favorable to Mr. Churchill and Mr. Streeter, and that he does not intend to make a single appointment in the future suggested by either Senator Gallinger or Senator Burnham.

The President is in no humor to compromise with his enemies in the senate. He is satisfied that he has the whip in hand, since he is putting all of his enemies in the light of being opposed to Secretary Taft's nomination and as he is satisfied that Secretary Taft will be nominated, he is convinced that those who continue their opposition will find themselves outside the breastworks, so far as the next administration is concerned.

AND MAIN TRACK ON THE C. O. DIVISION WAS BLOCKED FOR HOURS.

Trains Detoured via the C. & M. V. and C. L. & W.—Brakeman Robt. Hockley Killed.

A bad accident occurred at Leatherwood Mine, on the C. O. division of the B. & O. railroad, just east of Cambridge, about 6 o'clock Tuesday morning. First 28 was drawn by two engines, with Engineers McNurney and Swann at the throttles, and Conductor McDermott in charge of the train. Just as the train reached Leatherwood Mine the lead engine, 2240, from some cause, yet unknown, jumped the track and the main track was blocked. Trains 14 and 103 were detoured via the C. & M. V. railway and Newcomerstown, via the C. L. & W. to Bellaire.

Brakeman's Sad Death. While assisting in making up his train in the Columbus yards Monday evening about 6 o'clock, Robert Hockley, 43 years of age, a B. & O. flagman living at 85 Gay street, this city, sustained injuries that afterward resulted in his death.

Hockley was coupling the air brake on two cuts of cars near Naughten and Third streets, and a third cut of cars that was shunted down drove the cars forcibly together, catching him between them. His back and left arm were broken and his hand mangled. Another trainman, hearing him scream, stopped the train and released him.

The police patrol was summoned and the unfortunate man was hurried to the Protestant hospital where he was placed on the operating table and a heroic effort made to save his life. The injuries proved fatal and at 2:10 o'clock death relieved him of his suffering. The body was then taken to an undertaking establishment and prepared for burial. It arrived in Newark on the noon train on the B. & O. and was immediately taken to his late home.

The deceased came to Newark 17 years ago with his wife and several children from Toronto, Canada, and immediately secured work as brakeman with the B. & O. He was a steady worker and was much admired by all his fellow workmen. His wife and seven children survive him. They are Mrs. C. L. Martin, Gladys, Lena, Marie, Clifford, Emerson and Wayne and an 11 months old baby.

The deceased was a member of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and a staunch supporter of the M. E. church. His fellow trainmen, Conductor Edward Dunn and Engineer Joseph Floyd, are almost prostrated as a result of the terrible accident. No funeral arrangements have been made, but the funeral will probably be in charge of the B. & O. R. T.

Appointments at Cambridge. George M. Smith has been appointed ticket agent at Cambridge, and M. Fordyce has been appointed freight agent at the same place. These agencies have been separated since moving into the new depot at Cambridge.

Celebrate Their Victory Over Wesleyan and Jolliffe in Granville Village.

Granville, Jan. 21.—Joy reigns supreme at Denison and Coach Rohrer is wearing the smile that won't come off because of the Baptists' basketball victory over Wesleyan. The victory of Saturday evening is the first that has perched on the scarlet banners of Denison in two years.

In order to celebrate the victory in a fitting manner, several hundred students held a parade about the streets of the village. During the festivities the marchers visited every one of the professors and demanded a speech from each. After their requests were granted, they repaired to the center of the village where a huge bonfire was made.

While the fire was in progress, a delegation of students called on all the merchants and hailed them from their places of business and compelled them to make a speech near the bonfire.

When the 10:30 car from Newark came in, the motorcar and conductor were captured and forced to make speeches extolling the Denison team. Coach Rohrer and Captain Livingston were among the speakers.

ENDURANCE RECORD MADE.

Hartford, Jan. 21.—What is undoubtedly an endurance record for continuous bowling has been established by Frank Griffith and J. F. Upson of Bristol, who spent 13 hours, 12 hours and 52 minutes to be exact, rolling 100 games without a stop. Relays of pin boys replaced each other frequently and altogether 1170 16-pound balls, weighing in the aggregate 51,000 pounds of wood, were thrown down the alleys. Griffith won 59 games, Upson won 38 games and three games were tied. Upson's high score was 228 and his low 117. Griffith's high was 225 and 115 his low. Griffith's average was 172.45 and Upson's 165.19. The total pin fall was 17,245 for Griffith and 16,519 for Upson. Other statistics were: Strikes, Upson, 322; Griffith 355. Spare, Griffith, 400; Upson, 291. The bowlers, who had a good-sized side bet, hasty lunches while the boys were setting up the pins.

The Advocate's Evening Story

A LEGEND OF OLD NEW YORK.

In the olden time when New York was New Amsterdam there was a fort where the new and beautiful customs house now stands. On a little street not far east of the fort lived Diederich Ten Brook—Broek is the Dutch for bristles—a dyer, whose daughter Anneke was one of the belles of the town. In those days in New Amsterdam every merchant lived over his store, and those who practiced a trade had their shops in the yard. The lower story of Ten Brook's house was wide enough to take in his vats without discommoding the family.

One night when there was a fire on what is now Broad street, where the bulls and bears daily devour the lambs in the stock market, Anneke saw a young man of her acquaintance, Wouter Bleeker, in the line of those passing buckets, suddenly dart to the burning building, shin up a water spout and rescue a child. The young girl was filled with admiration of the swain, and under her encouragement he later paid his court to her. Unfortunately for the lovers, Ten Brook frowned upon the connection, which is not surprising since young Bleeker had no place to put a bride.

Nevertheless Anneke could not be prevailed upon to give up Wouter, and he continued his visits at the house, while Ten Brook's cholera continued to rise, like the mercury climbing a thermometer. One evening—it was past 9 o'clock and every Dutchman was in bed—the angry father went into the kitchen, where the lovers were sitting hand in hand within the spacious fireplace, and exploded his wrath in the face of the suitor. Wouter arose and backed out through an open door that led into the drying room. Ten Brook following and shaking his fist in the youth's face. Since Wouter was moving in a contrary direction to his line of vision, he could see nothing behind him. Suddenly his heels caught upon a vat, and he went backward into the dye.

When he emerged not only his clothes, but every square inch of his body, was as red as the Indians from whom the island of Manna-hatta had been purchased. Ten Brook surveyed him, shrugged his shoulders, with an "Ugh!" and turning his back, left him. The newly dyed man ran home and, standing under the pump, received enough water to wash off the dye had it not been of the best and clung to him like a new skin.

The poor boy arose the next morning to survey himself in a glass, and see that he was hopelessly crimson. He went to a chemist and begged him to try to do something to remove his color. The chemist gave him a bath, in which were certain drugs; but, alas, when the bath emerged his crimson skin had turned violet.

Wouter went home in despair. There he found a note from Anneke appointing a meeting on the bank of the Hudson river for that very evening. Wouter would, sadly have stayed away, but feared his future happiness might depend upon the meeting. The hour was just after sunset. Anneke was waiting. When Wouter stepped up to her and she saw his violet hue she burst into an uncontrollable fit of laughter. Wouter, incensed, turned on his heel and left her to laugh if she liked till the sounds reached the Jersey shore.

The next morning the unfortunate youth went again to the chemist and besought him to make another trial. The chemist consented, but this time Wouter came out the hue of the grass in the Bowling green. Howling with disappointment, he ran home, and what should he see sitting on the stoop but Anneke.

"Go away!" he cried, covering his face.

"Dear Wouter," she said, "I have come to crave your forgiveness for laughing at you."

Wouter, reassured, advanced, at the same time uncovering his face. As soon as Anneke saw his green visage she again burst into a fit of laughter.

Wouter rushed past her and up to his room, where he locked himself in, and nothing could induce him to come forth till Anneke had gone away.

The chemist told Wouter that he hoped at last to find some chemical substance that would act upon the dye, changing it to skin color. Wouter gave him another trial and came out a bright orange. Soon after this Anneke met her lover walking between the fort and the junction of the Hudson and East rivers. She was hurrying to him to sue for pardon for her apparent want of sympathy. The afternoon sun struck his orange countenance, and again she failed for laughter.

After this Wouter gave up trying to find anything to change his color and determined to try to wear it away. Taking a boat he pulled down through the boys till he came to what is now called Coney Island. There he stripped and rolled and scraped himself in the sand every day for seven weeks, living on berries he found on the mainland and sleeping under his boat turned over on the beach. Day by day, week by week, his skin wore away, to be succeeded by one of a natural color.

When he had scraped away the old skin and a new one had formed, he went back to New Amsterdam. It was the middle of the afternoon, and he appeared upon the Bowling green.

One of the first persons he met was Anneke. She approached him with a smile, this time of contrition, and congratulated him upon his recovering his natural color. But, although she made continued attempt to conciliate him, she failed signally. Wouter never renewed his offer for her hand and eventually married a daughter of Petrus Van Schoonevan, a dealer in furs.

MABEL R. TERNING.

They also decided to ask for the protection of the national commission. Perhaps they were not aware that territorial rights over Richmond had already been granted to the new Ohio league. The clubs composing the I & O. league are Piqua and Van Wert, O., Richmond, Bluffton, Kokomo, Marion, Muncie and Anderson, Ind. Another meeting will be held in two weeks at Van Wert at which time a schedule will be adopted.

Plans for the reorganization of the O & P. league were thoroughly discussed at a meeting held in Youngstown Sunday. While there was nothing definite in the way of action it was practically decided that the league would be clubbed with a membership of six clubs and that Charles H. Morton of Akron would be elected to preside over the organization. The cities included are: Erie, New Castle and Sharon, Pa., and Canton, Akron and Youngstown, Ohio. Excepting Canton all of these cities were represented by one or more delegates. The addition of Erie and Canton is dependent upon their ability to secure the releases from the Interstate and Central leagues, the organizations of which they are at present members.

Notwithstanding all that has been said to the contrary, Canton may be a member of the Central league next season. The annual meeting has been called for today by President Doc Carson and many interesting matters will be attended to. The outcome of the meeting will be watched with interest by fans and officials over the Ohio league circuit. If Canton is able to retain her berth in the Central league old Zanesville will have to get a move on and crawl onto the band wagon. She certainly has had a turbulent career in the last few years in the baseball world.

ACT QUICKLY. Delay Has Been Dangerous in Newark.

Do the right thing at the right time. Act quickly in times of danger. Backache is kidney danger. Doan's Kidney Pills act quickly. Cure all distressing, dangerous kidney ills.

Plenty of evidence to prove this. Mrs. Bruce Ferrel, residing on Railroad street, Dresden O., says: "While a young girl a heavy weight fell on me and left my kidneys in a very disordered condition. My back gave me a great deal of annoyance and I suffered from bearing down pains which seemed to be as severe during the night as during the day and greatly disturbed my rest. I arose feeling very tired in the morning and had very little energy or ambition during the day. Finally I procured Doan's Kidney Pills, began their use and they positively cured me. I do not hesitate to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to all sufferers of kidney complaint."

Plenty more proof like this from Newark people. Call at A. F. Crayton's drug store and ask what customers report.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

FORKED SAPLING AS EVIDENCE IN DICKERSON CASE

Trial of Famous Case Begun in Millersburg Monday Morning—Star Witness Thursday.

Millersburg, Jan. 21.—The second trial of Ben Dickerson started in earnest when court convened at 10 o'clock Monday morning. The jury returned from its trip to view the scene of the crime near Cooperdale Sunday evening, and everything was in readiness to begin the taking of testimony when the session of court opened.

Coroner T. S. Lear of Coshocton county was the first witness called to the stand. His story of how he found the body of Mrs. Hughes in the forked sapling upon his arrival on the scene, and of how he saw the blood-hounds run the trail, was not unlike the one he told on the stand during the first trial. The doctor occupied the stand until the middle of the afternoon, when he was excused, and County Surveyor George Bock was called. He was called simply to explain a blue print of the premises which he was asked to make before the first trial.

When the attorneys had finished with Witness Bock court was adjourned until Tuesday morning.

It has been agreed upon by counsel for the two sides that Tom McCoy, the state's star witness, be called to the stand Thursday. The fatal forked sapling was brought here from Coshocton yesterday and set up in the court room. Sheriff Browning also brought the clothing worn by the murdered woman, which will be offered in evidence.

SENATOR HOWE CHARGES SCHEME.

Columbus, Ohio, Jan. 21.—The senate judiciary committee Tuesday refused to recommend Senator Carter's bill repealing the Longworth act relating to the placing of constitutional amendment propositions on the official ballot. It is charged by Senator Howe that this is a scheme to defeat the initiative and referendum.

The only sure things of life are those that have already happened.

COURT NEWS

Case Continued.
The case of John W. Keller, administrator of Thomas H. Keller, who has presented a large personal claim for allowance, was continued in the probate court until Wednesday, January 23, at 2 o'clock a. m.

Preparing Bill of Exceptions.
Notwithstanding his arduous duties at Millersburg, reporting the Ben Dickerson murder trial, Court Scribe George C. Cooper is at present engaged in the preparation of a bill of exceptions in the case of Mazelin against Mazelin, recently tried in the probate court, being a suit to contest the will of Francis Mazelin.

Delinquent Tax Sale.
The annual sale of delinquent taxes took place in the office of the County Treasurer Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. The sale was one of the lightest, if not the lightest, ever held in Licking county.

Judge Seward to Hear Case.
The case of Eli Hall against the Buckingham and Wright estates, which was for trial in the common pleas court Tuesday morning, was put over until Monday for trial, the reason being that Judge Nicholson had pardonable delicacy to hear the case, because of the fact that most of the legal questions involved had already been passed on by Judge Seward in determining the preliminary questions involved. It is expected that Judge Seward will be on the bench Monday. Col. Kibler and McDonald for the plaintiff and Jones & Jones and Norpell for the defendant.

Mrs. Crilly Gets $250.
In the case of Mary E. Crilly vs. David H. Morris, executor, an action to recover $500 as compensation for services rendered in caring for and nursing plaintiff's sister during an illness, the jury returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $250.

Romine vs. Romine.
In the case of Agnes Romine vs. Minor Romine, the defendant has filed a motion asking the court to require the plaintiff to make her petition more definite and certain. Norpell & Norpell, attorneys for the defendant.

McFadden vs. Everett Co.
In the case of Robert McFadden vs. The Edward H. Everett Company et al., the defendant asks that the plaintiff be required to make his petition more definite and certain. Flory & Flory, attorneys.

County Ditch Wanted.
A petition for a county ditch by Irwin Holliday and others, has been filed with the county auditor. The proposed ditch begins in Harrison township, running from the feeder near Kirkersville to the South Fork of the Licking creek. The date of hearing was sent for February 8, at 9:30 o'clock.

FAREWELL

OF JOHN MITCHELL TO UNITED MINE WORKERS GIVEN
TODAY.

IN HIS ANNUAL MESSAGE

Which Closes With Words of Tender
Solicitude for the Future and Pervent Benediction.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 21.—John Mitchell today delivered his tenth and last annual message to the United Mine Workers of America assembled here in the nineteenth annual convention. Points in Mr. Mitchell's address were:

Membership in December, 1907, was 300,096, which is larger than ever before for that month. The union failed of success in organizing fully Virginia, West Virginia, Maryland, and Meyersdale, Connelville and Irwin fields in Pennsylvania. Success in Washington, Wyoming, and Montana. The industrial workers of the world are charged with creating dissension in anthracite fields.

The inter-state agreement should be restored. Regrets to complain that certain locals are not treating contracts with sacred inviolability that they should.

Deplores mine slaughter and says the only hope is that miners urge congress to investigate and pass laws compelling measures of safety.

Urges adoption of insurance plans for the members of the union; makes strongest plea of all for end of child labor; exhortes members of the union who force children to work at 14, and says the legal age should be 16. Asserts that the proposed plan to consolidate the Western Federation of Miners and the United Mine Workers of America should most decidedly not be carried out.

In closing he said: "Looking back over the past ten years and revolving in my mind the innumerable events and incidents connected therewith, seeing in retrospect our struggles, our victories and our defeats, I have tried to analyze as judicially as I can, the wisdom or unwisdom of each act which has been taken upon my advice. And while, of course, different elicies might have brought better results and while no doubt in the light of subsequent developments mistakes have been made, yet, if I had it all to do over I should, I believe, advise the same course under similar circumstances and under like conditions. That wisdom may guide your pathway in the future and God's blessing may rest upon our movement is my earnest hope and will be my constant prayer."

SELF DEFENSE WILL BE PLEA

Of Miss Vanderbilt's Fiance Who Assaulted a Photographer With His Camera.

New York, Jan. 21.—Summoned into the Yorkville police court to answer to a charge of assaulting a photographer who sought only a snapshot at himself and his bride to be, Count Szechenyi of Hungary will set up the plea of self defense.

There seems no doubt that the count struck the photographer—Edmund T. Reilly, with his cane. It is understood the nobleman will admit as much. But when Reilly lay in wait to snap shot him as he left the Vanderbilt mansion for a stroll with his fiancée, Miss Gladys, Szechenyi maintains that the picture man himself was really disturbing the peace.

It is generally agreed that there would have been a general "mix up" had not Alfred G. Vanderbilt and a good natured policeman "butted" into the ring and engaged Reilly in soothing conversation while Szechenyi and Miss Vanderbilt were disappearing down the avenue.

The defense's case will be that the count and Miss Vanderbilt had been "pestered to death" by photographers for weeks, that both were tired of it, that Reilly was particularly bold and inconsiderate, that Miss Vanderbilt complained about it to the count and that the latter couldn't restrain himself another minute, but simply had to show the offender what he thought of him.

IN POLICE COURT

A talking match between the principals took up the biggest part of this morning's session in police court. William McIntosh, who was arrested Monday on a warrant sworn to by his sister-in-law Miss Mary Myers, was brought out to answer to the charge of destroying property owned by Miss Myers and the wife of McIntosh. "I didn't," said he. "You did," said Miss Myers, and the words were progressed in great shape until the mayor, getting tired of the argument, took a hand. He advised McIntosh to go to his home on Harrison street and take what property belonged to him, then stay away from there. This the man agreed to do and was released.

One plain drunk was brought out and handed the usual dollar and costs that is given in such cases.

ACTOR'S ARM

Shattered by Ball From Loaded Rifle in the Hands of Heroine at San Francisco Theater.

San Francisco, Jan. 21.—Too much realism for the comfort and safety of the actors was introduced at the Central theater last night in the play "Bunco in Arizona," when Benedict McQuarrie, as Black Hawk, was shot in the arm by a bullet fired by Miss Laura Hudson the heroine. McQuarrie flung up his knife which he held over the head of Kerman Cripps, the hero and sank to the floor with a groan that was all too real, his arm shattered by the ball from the gun. At the emergency hospital it was found that the bones of the arm were badly shattered. How the loaded cartridges got into the rifle is a mystery which is being investigated by the police.

WOMAN'S BACKACHE

The back is the mainspring of woman's organism. It quickly calls attention to trouble by aching. It tells, with other symptoms, such as nervousness, headache, pains in the joints, weight in the lower part of the body, that a woman's feminine organism needs immediate attention.

In such cases the one sure remedy which speedily removes the cause, and restores the feminine organism to a healthy, normal condition is LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

Mrs. Will Young, of 6 Columbia Ave., Rockland, Me., says:

"I was troubled for a long time with dreadful backaches and a pain in my side, and was miserable in every way. I doctored until I was discouraged and thought I would never get well. I read what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for others and decided to try it; after taking three bottles I can truly say that I never felt so well in my life."

Mrs. Augustus Lyon, of East Earl, Pa., writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I had very severe backaches, and pressing-down pains. I could not sleep, and had no appetite. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me and made me feel like a new woman."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.
For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration.

A SPANISH TRICK.

The Incident Which Moved England to Turn Drake Loose.

The relations between which Drake's raid into the south sea had for a time threatened with open rupture had greatly improved—at least in outward appearance—and in 1585, under special promises of immunity from molestation on religious or other grounds, Philip had invited to his ports a fleet of English corn ships in order to supply the deficiency of his own harvests. No sooner, however, had the English ships arrived than an embargo was laid upon them and their crews arrested.

One ship, the famous Primrose of London, managed to escape. While lying off Bilbao quietly discharging her cargo she had been visited by the corregidor of Biscay and his guard disguised as merchants. Suddenly called upon to surrender, the crew hung themselves upon the Spaniards, drove them all overboard and made sail. Some of the discomfited Spaniards as the shore boats fled were seen clinging to the English vessel. These were humanely rescued and carried in triumph back to England, and among them was the corregidor himself. Upon him were found his official instructions, setting forth expressly that the embargo was ordered for the purposes of the expedition against the English. This was enough for the queen and the powerful public opinion of commercial circles in London, which had obstinately clung to pacific relations with Spain. A retaliatory embargo was proclaimed, letters of general reprisal were issued, and Drake was let loose.—From Publication of Navy Records Society.

A PORTO RICAN CUSTOM.

Prayers For the Dying Recited in the Public Streets.

"A few evenings ago while we were at dinner in our hotel," writes an American author visiting in Porto Rico, "we heard the tinkling of a small bell just outside the hotel doors. Instantly Salvador, the waiter, stopped in the little bustling run with which he waits on the guests, hurriedly procured a candle, lighted it and carried it out on the balcony. Almost as soon as that candle was on the balcony railing we three Americans were beside it, questioning Salvador, for we were sure something unusual was going on.

"We saw a procession of many people, led by two priests, coming down the street, each person bearing in his hand a lighted candle. They stopped in front of a house facing the hotel, and Salvador told us that somebody was dying there and they were praying for his soul. Up and down the street as far as we could see on every balcony railing was burning either a candle or a kerosene lamp.

"From the absorbed interest of the people gathered in front of open doors and windows of the afflicted house the sufferer was apparently trying to die in full view of the spectators.

"Presently the bell began to ring again, the procession formed once more, and they all moved up the street. Salvador telling us in explanation that there was a second person dying and they were now going to pray for him."

A Slight Deduction.

In Mrs. Lapham's family circle her powers of reasoning were accounted most remarkable and convincing. Outside the family her ability to convince was not so marked.

"See here," she said without releasing the ten cent piece for which the conductor of the trolley car had gone to her side. "I've only brought Willy with me. He's eight, so I've got to pay his fare. I've left Myra, that's four, and Neddy, that's two, at home. Now, you wouldn't have charged me for them, would you?"

"No, madam," said the conductor. "Your fare, please."

"Well, they'd have taken one seat," persisted Mrs. Lapham, still retaining her hold on the ten cent piece. "I couldn't have held 'em both. I thought of bringing them, only 'twas too far. Now, why can't you take off something from Willy under the circumstances?"

"Musk is a powerful stimulant, a good thing for those with weak hearts. How is she that way?"

PARTY LINE DRAWN

Republican Papers Make Political Hack of Rose Bill.

IS EXCUSE TO PLAY DEMOCRATS

Manifest Discrimination in Treatment of Opponents of County Option. Child Labor Bills Take the Lead in House This Week—Samples of Economy Resulting From Putting Democrats into Important State Offices.

(Special Correspondence.)

Columbus, O., Jan. 21.—Republican papers here at the capital have a peculiar way of favoring the Rose county option bill. They are ever alert to print some ridiculous statement about any Democratic member who is known to be opposed to the measure, and they are even reckless about insinuating bribery or some other pernicious influence, but they never have a word of criticism for any Republican member who opposes county option. The same discrimination is shown in the printing of lurid stories about alleged questionable methods being employed to "win over" certain Republican advocates of the Rose bill and how impregnable such Republican members are to all temptation, but no Democrat is ever pointed out as being proof against the allurement that are said to beset the walks and talks of our solons.

Why Democrats who oppose county option should be singled out for lambasting by Republican papers which have nothing to say about Republicans who take the same position is a question of the old partisan bigotry of the G. O. P., which assumes that only Republicans are virtuous and that the devil has all the Democrats. It is not unreasonable to believe that the motive back of such attacks on Democrats by these Republican papers is more to make county option a party issue, and at the same time bulwark Democrats into supporting it. That is one way Republican papers have of dictating to Democrats.

The finished product of the first two weeks of the session was the enactment of two bills, one to erect a $20,000 hospital at the Industrial Home for Girls, near Delaware, and the other to renumber the sections of the municipal code. But from now on the calendars will not be so lean, there being already quite a number of bills ready for third reading in the senate. It is the usual experience that each branch works hardest in the first few weeks of a session to grind out bills originating therein, while the bills which come over from the other branch are held back by the committees, and this results in the rush toward the close for final action.

If the resolution to probe Senator Meek's charges against the present administration of the department of common schools of Ohio is reached in the senate Tuesday there is likely to be quite a spirited tilt, because reference to the resolution is expected. O. T. Corson, former school commissioner, who seemed to be the chief target of the Dayton senator's remarks, is preparing to put up a vigorous defense if an investigation is ordered. There is a general belief that the scandal has gone to such lengths that the legislature will be compelled to take official cognizance of it by the appointment of the committee proposed by Senator West's resolution, to consist of three members of the senate and three members of the house selected by the speaker of the house. This will insure an evenly divided commission politically, if the resolution is adopted.

On the house calendar are the same child labor bills which were before the legislature two years ago. These measures are endorsed by labor bodies and advocates of more specific restrictions on the employment of minors. The minimum age for employment is left at 14 years, but the bills provide that no boy under 16 and no girl under 18 shall work more than eight hours in any one day, nor more than 48 hours in any one week, the present laws making the maximum 10 hours a day and 55 hours a week. The present laws provide that minors under 16 shall not be employed where their lives and limbs are endangered, morals depraved or health injured, but do not specify what occupations come under this ruling. The pending meaures add to this section a list of forbidden occupations, including bowling alleys, establishments wherein intoxicating liquors are manufactured, sold or packed, and prohibiting girls under 16 from working in the tobacco industries, or from working where they are compelled to stand on their feet constantly. Another important change is the requirement that employers shall return age and schooling certificates to the superintendent of schools when the child's employment has ended, thus preventing the illegal use of such certificates. On the theory that women will know more than men about the moral, social and sanitary requirements for improved conditions in the employment of child and woman labor, provision is made for the appointment of eight women inspectors to give special attention to establishments where women and children are employed.

Monday evening additional arguments were heard on the Howe franchise resolution, which is before the senate committee on taxation, and which, it is believed, will be reported favorably.

Representative Eley's bill giving to the state railroad commission jurisdiction over telegraphs and telephones is in the hands of the house committee on railroads and telegraphs, of which Mr. Eley is a member. He hopes to have the committee consider the bill this week, and dates probably will be appointed for public hearings.

Senator James M. Williams of Cleveland, who presides over the senate, set a precedent during Senator Meek's speech which attracted much attention and some comment, none of which was unfavorable. In the audience was Senator Meek's wife and babe. When Mr. Williams saw them he sent Mrs. Meek an invitation to bring the child and sit by him on the dais, and she complied. While Senator Meek was hurrying thunderbolts at the "school ring" Senator Williams patted and played with Senator Meek's baby. It is the first time that any one can remember of a woman sitting beside the presiding officer in either branch of the legislature during a session.

A new sergeant-at-arms of the house will be chosen this week Richard Gilson, former sheriff of Jefferson county, who got to be sergeant-at-arms of the house by having served as sergeant-at-arms of two state Republican conventions, resigned to accept a tempting business offer, and there are enough applicants for the place, which pays $5 per day while the session lasts, to muster a full company in the present Republican "army of the unemployed."

As forecasted in a former letter, that Representative Roll of Warren county "started something" by his bill to increase the terms of county auditors, recorders, clerks of courts and prosecuting attorneys to four years. Representative Shuler of Dayton introduced a bill to the same effect, but applying only to clerks of courts. The probate judges got the four-year term two years ago. The separate bill for clerks of courts would indicate that the county officers who favor the longer term expect to be more successful by taking up one office at a time. Under the constitutional limitation of four years for treasurers and sheriffs these two county officers would not gain very much by having their terms extended to four years, except that they would have to go through but one campaign.

Following up the pace set by D. S. Creamer, state fire marshal, who turned into the state treasury over $13,000 out of the receipts of his office the past year, W. L. Finley, state oil inspector, shows in his annual report a net earning to the state of $14,451 from his office during the past year. Before the enactment of the present law the state got nothing from this source, all of the fees going to the inspectors. Mr. Finley points out that while the conditions of manufacture, distribution and sale of petroleum products have changed, the laws governing inspection and handling have remained the same. He urges additional legislation for the protection of users of the lighter products, such as gasoline, and says that in order to insure more thorough inspection the fees of the country deputies should be increased. If two Democratic officials can save the state $27,000 in one year, the net economy to the state if all state officers were entrusted to Democrats is merely a matter of mathematical demonstration. This is the year when state officials are to be elected in Ohio.

A bill by Representative Hunt of Hamilton county proposes to give municipalities a larger share of the receipts from the alkali tax of $1,000 a year on saloons. He points to the fact that the state's share of this tax for the year ending Nov. 15, 1907, was $2,747,000, an increase over 1905, when the tax was but $250, of $1,286,000. Mr. Hunt thinks this is too large a share for the state and his bill proposes a redistribution by which the state shall get but $-000 of the tax instead of 2-10, as at present, which would give to the state the same proportion it got when the tax was but $250 a year; the proportion for the municipalities is to be 75-100 instead of 50-100, as at present, and the other 20-100 is to go to the county general revenue fund. No part of the tax is diverted to the poor fund, provisions for which is to be made from the general revenue fund.

THE VALUE OF PERSONAL KNOWLEDGE

Personal knowledge is the winning factor in the culminating contests of this competitive age and when of ample character it places its fortunate possessor in the front ranks of

The Well Informed of the World.

A vast fund of personal knowledge is really essential to the achievement of the highest excellence in any field of human effort.

A Knowledge of Forms, Knowledge of Functions and Knowledge of Products are all of the utmost value and in questions of life and health when a true and wholesome remedy is desired it should be remembered that Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., is an ethical product which has met with the approval of the most eminent physicians and gives universal satisfaction, because it is a remedy of Known Quality, Known Excellence and Known Component Parts and has won the valuable patronage of millions of the Well Informed of the world, who know of their own personal knowledge and from actual use that it is the first and best of family laxatives, for which no extravagant or unreasonable claims are made.

This valuable remedy has been long and favorably known under the name of—Syrup of Figs—and has attained to world-wide acceptance as the most excellent family laxative. As its pure laxative principles, obtained from Senna, are well known to physicians and the Well Informed of the world to be the best we have adopted the more elaborate name of—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as more fully descriptive of the remedy, but doubtless it will always be called for by the shorter name of—Syrup of Figs—and to get its beneficial effects, always note, when purchasing the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of every package, whether you call for—Syrup of Figs—or by the full name—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna.

JAMES MILLS

WRITES AN INTERESTING LETTER TO THE ADVOCATE FROM ACROSS ATLANTIC.

Had a Rather Rough Voyage But Met Many People and a Number of Friendships Were Born.

(By James Mills.)

Mardy Tontypridd, Wales, Jan. 10
A copy of the Advocate containing notice of my departure from Newark has just reached me, and I am wondering where you got my photograph and how you made the "cut" so quickly. I note with interest that the old veteran Stasel has been able to declare another dividend, which I am sure will be thankfully received.

I sailed on the Oceanic from New York on December at 6:30 p. m. and landed at Plymouth on the 24th ult. at 6:15 a. m. We had a rather rough voyage but a fine lot of people made up the passenger list, my companions being from Buffalo, N. Y., Salina, Kas., and Minneapolis.

I am enjoying myself as well as an American can in this country, considering the weather and the ancient methods of the people. I have found the old houses in the same condition I saw them when a boy, with no advancement at all. The people here are lacking that energy and enthusiasm that the American people possess but they are much more religiously inclined. The methods of travel here are 100 years behind the times and practically everything else is in harmony with the transportation facilities. The weather here now is much like Newark weather late in October.

Yesterday I visited the place where I formerly worked, but found no improvement in machinery or in the methods employed. After that I visited many historic places and the first of the week expect to visit London, Paris and other European centers.

These people over here are closely watching the Thaw trial and even moving pictures of the White tragedy are shown.

I had a pleasant talk with the mayor of this city last evening and compared the different methods of doing business in the two countries. He finally admitted that we are far in advance.

I have met several true Americans on my travels and found all of them wishing they were back in "God's country" as they call the United States.

The manufacturing industries here are not doing very much as the American machinery outclasses them and the people prefer the American product.

I do not know when I shall be home, as my mother is in rather poor health and I expect to be back here w: a hor from time to time.

Thanking the Advocate for the interest shown me and for writing to me and with kind regards to my Newark friends, Yours very truly,

JAMES MILLS.

FLOTILLA

OF SWIFT TORPEDO BOATS WILL
CONVOY BIG BATTLESHIP FLEET

THROUGH THE STRAITS

And Will Then Remain With Armada
and Do Scouting Duty During Long Journey.

Washington, Jan. 21.—Radical change regarded as deeply significant has been made in the plans of Admiral Evans within the past few days. Instead of allowing the torpedo flotilla, actually detached, but nominally with the fleet, to proceed on its regular itinerary, orders have been issued to have this torpedo convoy remain with him until after the passage of the Straits of Magellan. It will probably stay with the fleet for the rest of the voyage to Magdalena Bay.

The purpose of this change of plans provides that the six torpedo destroyers shall precede the fleet of battleships through the straits, which are as narrow as 10 miles in some places. They will perform scout and patrol duty, searching in advance for possible hostile vessels, the location of mines, or similar impediments to the progress of the warships.

The denial by the State and Navy departments that there was a plot for the injury of Admiral Evans' battleships in the harbor of Rio de Janeiro was purely technical. It was ascertained that both of these departments have known the circumstances for several weeks.

The explanation of the denial is offered that it would have been bad policy to make the news public for two reasons. One was that the story might not be true, and that the thousands of persons interested in the personnel of the fleet would have been unduly alarmed, the other, that publication would have put the suspects on their guard.

The danger at Rio it is felt officially, has been entirely eliminated, and besides this officials say that Admiral Evans has taken such steps as will eliminate danger elsewhere, especially in the narrow straits through which he must pass.

Aside from the patrol and scout duty to be performed by the torpedo flotilla at this critical point of the voyage, the impression among navigators here is that Real Admiral Evans will not again be separated from the flotilla. It is expected that it will be ordered, if not already ordered, to accompany the fleet the whole way. That it is now believed, is the only way to have the flotilla make the time originally intended.

INCENDIARY

Origin Was Fire Which Caused Loss of $200,000 at Cleveland This Morning.

Cleveland, O., Jan. 21.—Police are today trying to run down incendiaries who caused a $200,000 loss at an early morning fire in the Cleveland Steel Casting company's plant. The pattern shop and armature works with machinery and patterns, it will take months to replace were destroyed. The watchman found one of the windows forced with a jimmy. As he tried to climb inside the building the interior burst into flames. The crew of a passing engine saw two men run from the building a few minutes previous.

HENRY CLEWS

New York, Jan. 21.—Henry Clews is the head of the banking firm of Henry Clews & Co. Born in Staffordshire, England, he came to this country when 15 years old and, with his father's consent, decided upon a business career instead of fitting himself for the ministry, as had been the original intention of both his parents and himself.

He began as a clerk with the importing firm of W. G. Hunt & Co. in this city. In 1857 he became one of the members of the firm of Stout, Clews & Mason, which subsequently became the firm of Livermore, Clews & Co. The present firm of Henry Clews & Co. was organized in 1877.

For many years Mr. Clews was treasurer of the American Geographical Society and of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. He was one of the founders of the Union League Club, and is one of the oldest members of the Union Club.

SUPREME COURT REVERSES EDICT AGAINST ICE MEN

INSOFAR AS IT CARRIES A SENTENCE OF IMPRISONMENT
IN THE WORK HOUSE.

Three Defendants Remanded Back to Toledo for Re-sentence—No Constitutional Grounds.

Columbus, Jan. 21.—In the cases of Reuben C. Lemmon, Roland A. Beard and Joseph A. Miller, the Toledo Ice Trust officials, sentenced to pay a fine of $2,500 each and to serve six months in the work house, the Supreme court Tuesday reversed the sentence and remanded the cases for the re-sentencing of the accused. The reversal is on the ground that the Toledo court under the anti-trust laws, did not have jurisdiction to send the ice men to the work house, but could only send them to the county jail. The reversal does not upset the law on constitutional grounds. It simply means that the court must re-sentence the ice men by ordering them confined in the county jail, instead of the work house.

TO NAME WITHOFF FOR THIRD TERM

Washington, Jan. 21.—Representative Harding of the Third Ohio district has announced his intention of recommending F. G. Withoff for re-appointment as postmaster of Dayton, O. There were several candidates, among them Chairman Chas. W. Belser of the county Republican committee. The recommendations will be sent in immediately for a third term for Withoff.

CITY COUNCIL

on the matter, but his remarks created quite an impression on the members. He talked in an earnest manner, showing that he was versing himself with problems with which the members would come in contact, and he was not in favor of any hasty legislation which might afterwards be a cause of regret.

Councilman Oliver D. Irwin next spoke regarding its passage. He stated that he was also opposed to railroad an ordinance of such vast importance through in such a manner. He declared that it was a question which required the utmost and thorough investigation by every member of the council. "When the $300,000 bond issue went through," said Mr. Irwin, "we were told that it would complete the plant, and it isn't half finished, and we don't want to repeat that mistake. We want to move slow in the matter and know just what we are doing."

Mr. Fulton then arose in support of his ordinance. He said among other things, that council had been ready to pass the ordinance the first night it was introduced, and would have done so if he had requested it. This was a strange assertion to make in view of the fact that some of the members had no knowledge that such an ordinance would be sprung. It surely reflected on the capability of some of the council members. It could hardly be conceived that they would support an $85,000 bond issue without giving the question at least a little thought. Continuing Mr. Fulton said that council was as ready to pass the ordinance at the present time as it ever would be. He had interviewed a number of people and they were all in favor of it with few exceptions. "We don't want to hear from Mr. Veach," he said. "We have been hearing from him for the past four or five years, and we don't want his old junk pile."

Mr. Fulton next pulled an inventory out of his pocket and read how the $200,000 had been expended. He next showed what could be accomplished with $85,000, and said that it would cover 16 1-4 miles of mains. "We have frittered away $50,000 in waiting and we should not make that mistake again. We ought to give our unemployed something to do. Other cities are doing it, and we should fall in line." He said that he would ADMIT however, that $85,000 would NOT COMPLETE the system.

Mr. Kuster again arose and replied to Mr. Fulton. He stated that money had been foolishly spent in the erection of the half completed plant, and that that mistake should be guarded against in the future. The people had been promised that the $300,000 would be expended in the laying of mains, and they were to have had 50 miles of them, and now it will take over $200,000 to do it, and the Service Board knows that to be true and so does every member of the council, as well as Mr. Fulton. If we can buy the old plant at the right figure and save the city at least $75,000, then that is a matter that should be investigated. If we can save our taxpayers money then it is our duty to do so. "I am not talking in favor of the water company, but am talking for the taxpayer, for I have the city's best interest at heart, and wish to do what I believe is just and right."

Mr. Elmer Orr next spoke, stating that council ought not to be too hasty in the matter and take snap judgment. He said there seemed to be quite a difference of opinion, and while he favored the ordinance, yet it required more deliberation.

President Rossel next put the question of passing the ordinance after Clerk Wulffhoop had given it the third reading, and it was defeated, the vote standing three to three. Messrs. Fulton, Florin and Baker voted for the ordinance and Messrs. Kuster, Irwin and Orr against it. Mr. Stare did not vote.

A resolution was next introduced by Councilman Orr declaring the intention of appropriating property for the opening of Bird avenue. It was referred to the street committee.

A resolution was introduced by Councilman Irwin declaring it necessary to appropriate property for the

A Simple Cough Cure Home-Made

Here is a simple recipe that is a good thing to cut out and paste in your scrap book. It will make one pint of the most effectual cold and cough remedy that any physician could give you. Here it is:

Granulated Sugar Syrup, 13 1/2 oz.
Pinex 2 1/2 oz.

The Syrup is made by heating and stirring Granulated Sugar and Water. The 2 1/2 oz. of Pinex may be had of any good drug gist at a cost of 50 cents. Mix in a pint bottle. Shake well, and take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours as required.

Pinex might be called the concentrated ozone of the Norwegian pine forests, famous for centuries in curing consumption, asthma and kindred membrane diseases. It is, as a matter of fact, the purest and most concentrated form of compound extract of Norway white pine tar. There are many pine tar or pine oil preparations, but none of these are to be compared with the pure Pinex itself. All druggists have it or can get it easily if requested to do so.

SUCCESSFUL REVIVAL.

Although Monday evening is generally an off night for crowds in revival meetings, still last night proved to be an exception to the rule at the Fine street chapel revival, conducted by Evangelist Dillon. There was a large crowd present and much enthusiasm was manifested. The crowd was augmented by about forty of the converts of the meeting recently held by Evangelist Dillon at Carmel church being present. There were several seekers at the altar. Evangelist Dillon will preach every afternoon at 2 o'clock and at 7 o'clock each evening of this week. The subject tonight will be "A Great Panic and Its Cause."
